November 2025 Newsletter

November is about Newness

What does November symbolize spiritually?

The spiritual meaning for the month of November symbolizes transition, remembrance, gratitude, and inward reflection, marking the shift from harvest to winter with shorter days pushing us to turn inward. Through thankfulness and spiritual focus, it's a time for acknowledging life's impermanence, seeking spiritual connection, and finding peace and proper relaxation.

Here's a more detailed look at why November is seen as a month of Newness:

Key Spiritual Themes

- Transition & Release: The end of the liturgical year and the fading of nature signal a time to let go of what no longer serves you, mirroring the fall of leaves.

- Remembrance & Ancestors: A strong focus on honoring our deceased, ancestors, and loved ones, with Catholic traditions like All Souls' Day and general cultural acknowledgments.
- Gratitude: Thanksgiving highlights gratitude, a spiritual practice preparing for the darker, more introspective season.
- Inward Focus: Shorter days and colder weather encourage slowing down, resting, and looking inward for spiritual nourishment.
- Spiritual Warfare & Awakening: The number 11 (November's position) signifies spiritual awakening, divine intervention, and facing inner truths, calling for mindful action.

Symbolism in Practice

- The Veil Thins: Many traditions believe the barrier between realms is thinner, facilitating connection with spirits and deeper spiritual work.
- Preparation: It's a period of preparing for the quiet of winter and the anticipation of Advent, aligning oneself for future divine work.
- Rest & Peace: A spiritual call to find rest, say "no" to overcommitment, and allow for emotional and physical rejuvenation

November Spotlight: Thanksgiving ~New Project~ ACT

Thanksgiving is Gratitude & Purposeful Reflection

Honoring What Has Been While Preparing for What's Next

November universally invites us to pause, reflect, and give thanks—not just for what went right, but for what shaped us. Gratitude is more than a feeling; it's a spiritual posture that opens the door for clarity, healing, and forward movement.

At WDGS, we view November as a sacred checkpoint—a time to acknowledge God's faithfulness, recognize personal growth, and prepare our hearts for what's ahead with intention and wisdom.

Thanksgiving: Gratitude That Grounds Us

Thanksgiving is not limited to a table or a holiday—it's a daily decision to recognize grace. When we choose gratitude, we shift from lack to abundance, from stress to peace.

This month, take time to:

- Give thanks for progress, not just outcomes
- Appreciate lessons learned, even the uncomfortable ones
- Speak gratitude out loud—for family, community, provision, and purpose

Gratitude stabilizes the soul and strengthens faith. A thankful heart stays aligned with God's perspective.

New Project: is Planning to use Faith in Motion

November is also a powerful time to plant seeds. A new project doesn't always begin with loud announcements—it often starts quietly, with obedience and preparation.

A new project may look like:

- A vision you've been carrying but haven't acted on yet
- A personal reset or creative endeavor
- A calling that requires faith more than certainty

Remember: Every meaningful project begins with belief before it shows results.
If God placed it in you, He intends to bring it through you.

---

ACT: Apply What You Know

ACT is the bridge between faith and fruit.

We can pray, plan, and prepare—but at some point, action is required. November challenges us to move from intention to implementation.

Ask yourself:

- What step have I delayed?
- What action aligns with my faith?
- Where do I need to stop waiting and start moving?

Small, consistent action produces lasting transformation. Faith without action stays incomplete.

WDGS~Scripture & Prayer for November

Scripture~1 Thessalonians 5:18 (KJV) “In every thing give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you.”

Theme: Gratitude, Reflection, and Trusting God’s Provision: November is This scripture doesn’t say for everything because some things hurt, confuse, or stretch us. It says in everything. Gratitude is not denial; it’s devotion. It’s choosing to recognize God’s presence even while the lesson is still unfolding.

WDGS | November Prayer

Gracious and Faithful God,
As we enter the month of November, we slow our pace and quiet our spirits to acknowledge You—not just for what You’ve done, but for who You are.

Thank You for provision seen and unseen.
Thank You for doors opened, prayers answered, and even the ones You lovingly said “not yet” to.
Thank You for carrying us through seasons we didn’t think we’d survive—and teaching us what truly matters along the way.

Lord, cleanse our hearts of complaint and replace it with contentment. Help us to remember where You brought us from, what You taught us there, and how You sustained us every step of the way. Teach us to give thanks with maturity—not only when life is good, but when life is growing us.

As this year begins to close, align our hearts with humility, our minds with wisdom, and our spirits with peace. Let gratitude become our posture, reflection our discipline, and obedience our offering.

We trust You with what has been, what is, and what is yet to come.

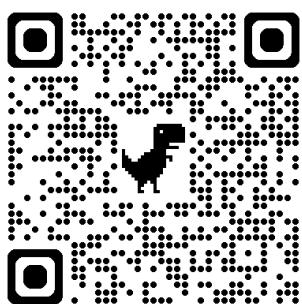

In Jesus Christ, name, we pray, Amen
